

TOI TANGATA[®]

Summer Internship 2023-24

Internship Overview

Toi Tangata internships offer a unique opportunity for taurira Māori to actively engage and participate in the development of innovative approaches to physical activity and/or nutrition. Embedded within a broader initiative, “Growing the Puna”, these internships are strategically oriented toward strengthening connections among tertiary students, the community and the health sector, particularly in the areas of physical activity, sport and nutrition. Under the guidance of the Kaiārahi (design, innovation & research lead), as well as support from the Toi Tangata team, taurira will undertake a project that aligns with, and contributes to advancing the aspirations of Toi Tangata. During the upcoming Summer, Toi Tangata is seeking taurira who aspire to seek experience, knowledge and holistic aspirations that surround te taiao in relation to ora – encompassing Oranga, Mauri ora and Hauora. Te Taiao can include, but is not limited to: wai (water), whenua (land), ngahere (forest), ngā whetū (stars) & maramataka (Māori lunar calendar)

Eligibility

Māori students enrolled and undertaking an undergraduate or postgraduate level degree in hauora, sports, physical activity, or nutrition who are genuinely interested in growing their skill set, developing their skills, knowledge, and networks to contribute meaningfully to whānau, hapū, iwi and sector in the realm of sport, nutrition, exercise, and physical activity.

Applications for the Summer Internship open 29th September 2023 and close on 5pm 27th October 2023.
